

Leadership Coaching

An organization's staff are its' most important resource. Every member of your team, from the CEO to the intern, deserves the opportunity to become an effective agent of your mission.

Services We Offer

McAlpine Consulting is available to advance the impact of your organization through a range of coaching services that will promote leadership and staff development, effective teamwork, communication, and trust:

- Individual coaching with executives and managers for a range of organizational needs
- Supervision and staff evaluation training for new and experienced supervisors
- Small group coaching sessions
- Sexual harassment training
- Diversity training
- Staff retreat planning and facilitation (Link to Meetings page)
- Interim executive leadership for organizations in transition
- Board Governance training

Costs

McAlpine Consulting costs vary depending on the amount of work being asked of us. We can do both short and long-term coaching. Please contact us directly at consulting@lmc Alpine.com or 773-728-0271 so that we may develop a proposal tailored to your needs.

References

McAlpine Consulting has worked with dozens of clients in a range of coaching capacities. Please view our client list, and feel free to contact us for references.

